TAIWAN SUMMER CAMP

February 12, 2013

Dear EALC and Enopi Parents and Guardians,

Good day. We are glad to inform you that EALC has organized a TAIWAN SUMMER CAMP slated on April 1 – 21, 2013. It will be three weeks of classes for students age 6 to 16, with Mondays to Fridays devoted to Mandarin lessons in the morning, and culture exploration or city tours in the afternoon. Meanwhile, field trips are scheduled on Saturdays.

The venue is at Kaohsiung Tourism Mandarin Camp, Taipei Language Institute, Kaohsiung Center. The address is: 507 Jhongshan 2 Rd. 2F, Kaohsiung City.

Children below 10 years old must be accompanied by a parent or relative if there are less than 5 enrollees. A teacher from EALC will accompany the children if there are more than 5 enrollees.

Adults are welcome to join and study Mandarin. An adult class will be organized by Taipei Learning Institute. (TLI). Tuition fees and incidental expenses will be the same as the children.

Tuition Fee (inclusive of materials, insurance & lunch): P32,000.00

Accommodation cost for three weeks: P 4,500.00

Other Incidental expenses (estimates only)

Passport:	P 2,000.00
Taiwan Visa:	2,700.00
Plane Ticket (roundtrip)	12,000.00 Child; 15,000.00 Adult
DSWD permit	1,000.00

Note: If Camp is cancelled, only full tuition fees will be refunded. Incidental expenses are not refundable.

We encourage you to take advantage of this opportunity to let your child participate in this rich cultural learning experience. Please sign up with your respective Program Coordinators or Chief Instructors if you are interested. Deadline for filing application is on March 15, 2012.

Thank you very much!

Sincerely yours,

NORMA O. CHING, M.A. Ed. Ad.
School Directress
